

The Boy Who Cried Wolf by Val Biro, (Fables from Aesop), The Wright Group, Level 16

Page	Text
2	A boy lay in a field all day, looking after his sheep.
3	He was very bored, so he decided to play a trick.
5	(In speech bubble): "Wolf! Wolf!" The people in the village came running To help chase the wolf away.
7	But there was no wolf. The people went home and the boy laughed at them.
8	The next day the boy played the same trick. (In speech bubble): "Wolf! Wolf!"
9	Again the people came running to help chase the wolf away.
11	But there was no wolf. The people went home and the boy laughed at them.
12	One day a real wolf came into the field.
13	"Wolf! Wolf!" shouted the boy as he ran away.
15	But the people did not come. They said, "He is playing a trick again."
17	And when the boy came back to the field, the wolf had eaten all his sheep.
